The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number      Nature of Noncompliance

- 1                      The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.'

The offender engaged in criminal association, in that on July 17, 2009, his probation officer witnessed him exercising at his home with Rowland Smith, with whom the offender had knowledge of having a criminal record. Smith has been convicted of numerous felonies in the State of New Jersey, including a conviction on April 9, 1998 for Aggravated Assault with a Weapon, Indictment Number 97-1204871.

- 2                      The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.'

The offender has used alcohol to the excess. Specifically, on October 19, 2009, the offender was arrested by the Newark Police Department for Criminal Mischief (Domestic Violence). According to the police, the offender had been intoxicated at the time of his arrest. The offender informed his probation officer that on the day of his arrest, he imbibed in two beers and a half-pint of brandy.
